Known as the "Scramble for Africa," this period saw countries like Britain, France, Belgium, Germany, and Portugal carve up the continent for economic gain, strategic advantage, and national prestige.

Key Drivers of Imperialism

To fully grasp any DBQ on this topic, it's essential to understand the motivations behind imperialism:

- Economic Interests: The Industrial Revolution created a massive demand for raw materials such as rubber, gold, diamonds, and palm oil, all abundant in Africa.
- Political and Strategic Goals: European nations wanted to secure trade routes and military outposts, leading to territorial acquisitions for geopolitical influence.

These drivers often intersected, creating a complex web of causes that any

Cite specific documents to support your points, explaining how each piece of evidence contributes to your overall argument. This is crucial for scoring well on DBQs.

4. Include Outside Knowledge

While the documents are central, supplementing your essay with relevant historical facts—such as the impact of the Berlin Conference or the consequences of colonial rule—can elevate your response.
