April in Persona 5 Royal is a crucial month, setting the pace for much of the game's story progression and character interactions. Whether you're a newcomer or revisiting the game, understanding how to effectively navigate this period can dramatically improve your rankings, combat readiness, and social stats. The changes brought by Persona 5 Royal's expanded content compared to the original Persona 5 also mean there are fresh experiences and challenges to uncover in this pivotal month.

Understanding April's Role in Persona 5 Royal

April is the month that heralds both new beginnings and heightened challenges for the Phantom Thieves. It's the start of the academic year at Shujin Academy, and this timing influences your daily activities, social interactions, and even palace infiltration schedules.

Why April is Important for Confidants

One of the standout features of Persona 5 Royal is its robust Confidant system, which deepens relationships with various characters and unlocks new abilities and storylines. April is when many Confidants become available or have significant events, making it a prime time to focus on building these bonds.

For example, early Confidant ranks such as Ryuji (Skull), Ann (Panther), and Morgana often require your attention in April to keep your relationship on track. Additionally, new characters introduced in Royal, like Kasumi Yoshizawa and Takuto Maruki, start making their appearances around this time, offering fresh social link opportunities that weren't available in the original game.

Balancing School, Social Stats, and Palace Exploration

Persona 5 Royal challenges players to juggle multiple priorities: attending school, improving your social stats (Knowledge, Guts, Proficiency, Kindness, and Charm), and navigating Palaces. April is no exception—managing your time efficiently is key.

Social stats determine your ability to unlock certain Confidant events and dialogue options. Early in the game, raising Knowledge and Guts can open up new conversation choices and activities. Engaging in various part-time jobs, studying at the library, or participating in activities like fishing or working out can help you boost these stats. Since April has several days of downtime due to school holidays and weekends, it's a great chance to focus on these improvements.
